About WFM-IGP

Founded in 1947, the World Federalist Movement-Institute for Global Policy (WFM-IGP) is a nonprofit, nonpartisan organization committed to the realization of global peace and justice through the development of democratic institutions and the application of international law.

WFM-IGP includes a comprehensive set of programs that work to protect civilians from the threat of genocide, war crimes, and crimes against humanity; facilitate transparency in governance; increase access to justice; and promote the application of the rule of law. We work in partnership with the United Nations, governments, and other international and regional institutions around the globe—as well as with thousands of committed individuals and world leaders—to advance a mission of peace, prosperity, and security for all.

WFM-IGP Board of Directors

The WFM-IGP's Executive committee serves as its Board of Directors. Executive committee members are elected to oversee the movement and generally meet four times a year to approve budgets, monitor programs and oversee activities. More information and a list of current board members can be found here.

Remuneration Policy

Director salaries are determined by the WFM-IGP Board in coordination with the Executive Director and are in accordance with remuneration guidelines “(Code Wijffels)”, ensuring that a Director's salary does not exceed that of a Dutch Ministry Director General in the civil service. Henceforth and in continuation from January 1st, 2014, no WFM-IGP employee will receive a salary that exceeds the level mentioned above.

Annual Report and Financials
